Foreword

by the FEI President

On behalf of the Fédération Equestre Internationale (FEI), I am delighted to welcome you to Ibos for one of the most inspiring events of the equestrian year.

This summer will see the picturesque French town of Tarbes, the main town of the Hautes-Pyrénées Department host the FEI World Endurance Championships for Juniors and Young Riders; an occasion for potential future stars to develop their passion for the sport and also of course for the fans and professionals alike to learn from the dedication of youth riders.

The event this year will be in the Ibos forest 'Bois du Commandeur'.

In previous years riders from such diverse nations as France, Uruguay and the UAE have been among the most visible on the winners' podium and we hope many others will be inspired to join them this year! They will certainly have other chances too, as there a number of other events this year where youth play a part. Endurance is hugely popular worldwide, with winners in the Seniors group coming from all over the globe and I wish the best of luck to all our young competitors in emulating their success. The taking part, as everyone in sports knows, is a key part too, especially for our young riders; they will learn so much from this experience and surely become competitors or huge fans in the future. This part of France is well-known for its equestrian links, including a stud farm founded in 1806 by Napoleon, a national horse museum and a yearly equestrian show. What better place for enthusiastic young riders to experience the thrill and challenge of competition?

I am truly delighted for all the young riders taking part and am sure they will gain a great deal from the experience as well as making new friends along the way. I would also like to take the opportunity to thank the organising committee, officials and volunteers who provide such a dedicated service to the cause of camaraderie and horsemanship.

HRH Princess Haya
FEI President

I extend my warm support to all participants of the World Junior Endurance Championship 2013: to all the young international riders but also to the veterinarians and organizers who will work together this year in Ibos. Allow me to also welcome the representatives of the International Equestrian Federation to France.

It is with enthusiasm that the Midi-Pyrénées region is hosting the Championship which will make the beautiful heritage of this territory shine. I must also thank the associations and volunteers who have made this project happen.

The French equestrian tradition will, I am sure, be under the spotlight. This competition is also a continuation of great performances by our teams in this category.

Beyond the sporting aspect, it is also an opportunity to meet these talented young riders from five continents and share wonderful sporting moments during the 120 km race in the heart of the magnificent "Bois du Commandeur".

Valérie Fourneyron
Ministre des Sports

International juniors and young endurance riders are meeting in France this year for their world championship. The French riding federation (FFE) supports all endurance rides in France and actively backs applications from ride organisers so that FEI major championships can be held in France. We will be rooting for the French team and encouraging all competitors in the spirit of fair play.

Thank you to the organisers. Congratulations to the riders for their seriousness and commitment. Wishing a good world championship to everyone.

Serge Lecomte
Président de la Fédération Française d'Equitation

June 2012 we were granted the event and after 10 months of preparation, everything will be ready for July 27 and we look forward to welcoming you. Who will win this wonderful event? You come from five continents and different cultures, all with the hope of finishing your race and becoming world champion.

You love your horse, take care of it and we hope that the day is enjoyable. The French Equestrian Federation, local authorities, sponsors and all the volunteers wish you success and fun for your stay in our beautiful Pyrenees. We hope that this trip will make you want to return to our region.

Jacques Dutrey
Co-Président Endurance Equestre 65

The Endurance Equestre 65 association would like to welcome all the riders and all the people that have accompanied them to our beautiful region. Going further than the competition itself, which will soon reveal new champions, I hope you all forge new friendships here. "Hakuna Matata!" and "Carpe diem quam minimum credula postero"!

Christian Lozano
Co-Président Endurance Equestre 65

The Regional Riding Committee is delighted that the Midi-Pyrénées region was chosen to host the FEI World Junior Endurance Championship in 2013!

It is here, in the Bois du Commandeur in Ibos, near Tarbes, that the world's best young contenders in the discipline, representing five continents, will try to win the ultimate title of World Junior Endurance Champion.

Endurance is a very dynamic discipline in the Midi-Pyrénées thanks to our diverse landscapes and the rich heritage of our beautiful region.

The discipline has many Midi-Pyréncean competitors at high national and international levels.

Our region has also had the privilege of hosting the French National Championships for the last two years in Castelsagrat, a picturesque village in Tarn and Garonne, and will be doing so again in 2014.

Now we have the FEI World Junior Endurance Championship 2013 in Ibos which promises great moments of sport, emotion and passion at this privileged site in the heart of the Hautes-Pyrénées.

Let us be carried away dreaming of freedom, do not they say that 'The air of heaven is that which blows between a horse's ears'?

Chairman of the Abu Dhabi Equestrian Club

Presents

H.H. The President of United Arab Emirates Endurance Cup

As the organiser of the last FEI World Endurance Championships for Young Riders & Juniors in Abu Dhabi in 2011, I am pleased to hand the relay on to "Endurance Equestre 65". Knowing the organising team as I do, I have confidence that a fair competition will be held in a friendly atmosphere in this beautiful area of France.

During the competition in 2011, I noticed the ardour & competitive spirit in the young endurance riders. They are the future of our sport and I would like to encourage them by inviting the first rider of each of the first five nations to finish to participate in "HH The President of United Arab Emirates Endurance Cup" in Abu Dhabi in February 2014. In the meantime I would like to wish good luck to all the participants and I hope everyone will enjoy the event.
