Khalifa Al Jahouri | Winner

Al Jahouri dedicated his victory to President His Highness Shaikh Khalifa Bin Zayed Al Nahyan, and Shaikh Mansour Bin Zayed Al Nahyan. "I am very proud to win such a prestigious ride as the HH The President's Cup," said Al Jahouri, who credits his father for all the success he has achieved. "I am also very fortunate to have my father always by my side during the rides. He is constantly providing me with accurate instructions and encouragement which is a big motivation for me. I always follow his advice and use it to improve my ability as a rider. "But first of all you need a good horse to be competitive and I must say my horse Niac Armor has [done] nothing wrong today.

After taking success in the Lusail ride earlier this year, Khalifa Al Jahouri added feather to his cap after winning the prestigious HH The President Cup CEI 3* ride at the Emirates International Endurance Village in Al Wathba yesterday.

The 15-year-old son of European champion Ali Khalifa Al Jahouri delivered a supremely tactical effort aboard 11-year-old mare Niac Armor to win the 160 metre event in 4 hours 3 minutes and 39 seconds.

Elhad Stalder, who trained Ahmad Al Balushi, who trained Al Jahouri by over eight minutes entering the final loop, finished strongly aboard his Arab gelding Elphyn Silverlight to snatch second place in 06:05.06.

Third place went to Moham-mad Matar Rashed Al Mazrooei, riding Seeh Al SalamStalder's Angko Arab Perleberg Cobra, who crossed the finish line 90 seconds behind Al Balushi.

Only 51 riders from the 128 that started the ride at 8.25am completed the course, among them lady rider Aya Abdullatif then lady rider Ali, who led for three stages before falling off to finish fifth in 06:09:57.

The ride was attended by His Highness Shaikh Mohammed bin Khalifa bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Vice-Minister of the UAE and Bin Muhamad Shaikh Hamdan Al Maktoum, Crown Prince of Dubai; Shaikh Mansour bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Minister of Presidential Affairs; Shaikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Deputy ruler of Dubai and Minister of Finance; Shaikh Hazza bin Zayed Al Nahyan, National Security Advisor; Shaikh Ahmad bin Zayed Al Nahyan, National Security Advisor; Shaikh Mansour bin Mohammed Al Maktoum, Shaikh Nahyan bin Mubarak, Youth and Community Culture, Youth and Community Development and Chairman of the General Authority for Youth and Sports Welfare; Shaikh Sultan bin Hamdan Al Nahyan, Advisor to His Highness the President and leading sports officials and endurance fans.

Al Jahouri dedicated his victory to President Bin Highness Shaikh Khalifa Bin Zayed Al Nahyan, and Shaikh Mansour bin Zayed Al Nahyan. "I am very proud to win such a prestigious ride as the HH The President's Cup," said Al Jahouri, who credits his father for all the success he has achieved. "I am also very fortunate to have my father always by my side during the rides. He is constantly providing me with accurate instructions and encouragement which is a big motivation for me. I always follow his advice and use it to improve my ability as a rider. "But first of all you need a good horse to be competitive and I must say my horse Niac Armor has [done] nothing wrong today.

Special day
"The ride was always going to be a big challenge, given the distances and the standard of competition, but I have prepared very hard and I think all the hard work paid off in the end. This is a very special day for me," added Al Jahouri who also won the 120km HH The President's Cup for Juniors and Young Riders in January and the FEI World Endurance and the FEI World Horse Championship for Your Ride in France last season. Al Jahouri took home Dh100,000 plus a car and the Shaikh Mansour Festival's custom-made Rolex wrist watch, while Al Balushi received a cheque for Dh200,000 in addition to a car. Al Mazrooei collected Dh100,000 plus a car. The winning team received a share of the Dh1.5 million prize money which was distributed among all the riders who finished the race. All the top five finishers were invited to attend the upcoming World Arabian Horse Conference London 2014.

Showpiece of Arabian racing on the cards

The Abu Dhabi Equestrian Club is set to stage its most important race calendar as they attract some of the best horses currently based in the country. A quality field of 11 horses, headed by course and distance winner Nawar, goes to contest the 1,400 metre Dh185,000 HH The President's Cup.

Trained by Ali Rashid Al Rahe, the Shaikhi Farm-bred son of Distorted Humour, is a proven performer at the track having also landed the Listed National Cup in December as well. He is the selection of two-time British champion jockey Paul Hanagan, who is retained by Shaikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Deputy ruler of Dubai and Minister of Finance. Al Rahe also saddles the National winner of 2012, who will be ridden by his stable jockey Ruyson French.

An interesting contender is the South African trained globe-trotter Kavanagh who makes his Abu Dhabi bow following a campaign centre around Meydan, where he also finished a highly creditable sixth in Reynaldweitzand in last year's Group 1 Dubai Golden Shaheen. Frenchman Gerold Ararache who takes the ride for trainer Eric Lemaire said: "He has only had one start this season, over an inadequate 1,600 metres and Ibs 2,000 metres really suits him. He should go close."
